Business As Usual at PAG with Temporary Office Relocations

Wednesday, June 3, 2015 – The Board and Management of the Port Authority of Guam is pleased to announce that despite the damage caused by the recent fire to the Administration Building, it is “business as usual” with ongoing operations. To allow for a full assessment of the damages incurred and a thorough investigation to proceed unimpeded, offices and services that were located within the Administration Building have had to be relocated, with telephone numbers as follows:

| OFFICE/SERVICE             | NEW LOCATION                      | CONTACT NUMBER              |
